Policies

CATERING POLICY

You must work with a licensed, approved professional caterer and/or bartending service to handle all food and beverage service. Please refer to our approved catering list. A catering fee equal to 6% of your catering invoice is due to the Barn at Reynolda Village.

PAYMENTS

A 50% deposit is due with a signed contract, as well as your $500 security deposit (refundable after the wedding, provided no damage to the property has occurred) in order to confirm your booking. The final 50% is due 45 days prior to your wedding date. Any optional upgrades or necessary additions will be invoiced separately prior to the event.

DÉCOR

Other than tables/chairs and the bar, the Barn does not provide any decorative items. You will need to make arrangements for table linens and all other décor. Nothing may be permanently affixed to the walls. Candles are permitted.

VENDOR POLICY

Aside from our catering requirement, you may work with any professional vendors of your choice. All wedding vendors will be required to provide proof of insurance prior to the wedding day.

BRIDAL PORTRAIT/ENGAGEMENT SESSION

As a benefit of your booking, you are welcome to schedule a professional portrait session in Reynolda Gardens and/or around the exterior grounds of the Reynolda House Museum of American Art. You and your photographer will also have access to these areas on your wedding day. Sessions must be scheduled in advance to ensure they do not conflict with official Reynolda Historic District events.

WEDDING COORDINATOR

It is strongly recommended that you hire a professional wedding coordinator. Please be aware that the Barn's operations team can not be responsible for any planning or coordination beyond the logistics associated with providing the venue for your wedding day.
